Logistics portfolio strategy and outlook

Grow through development and funds management

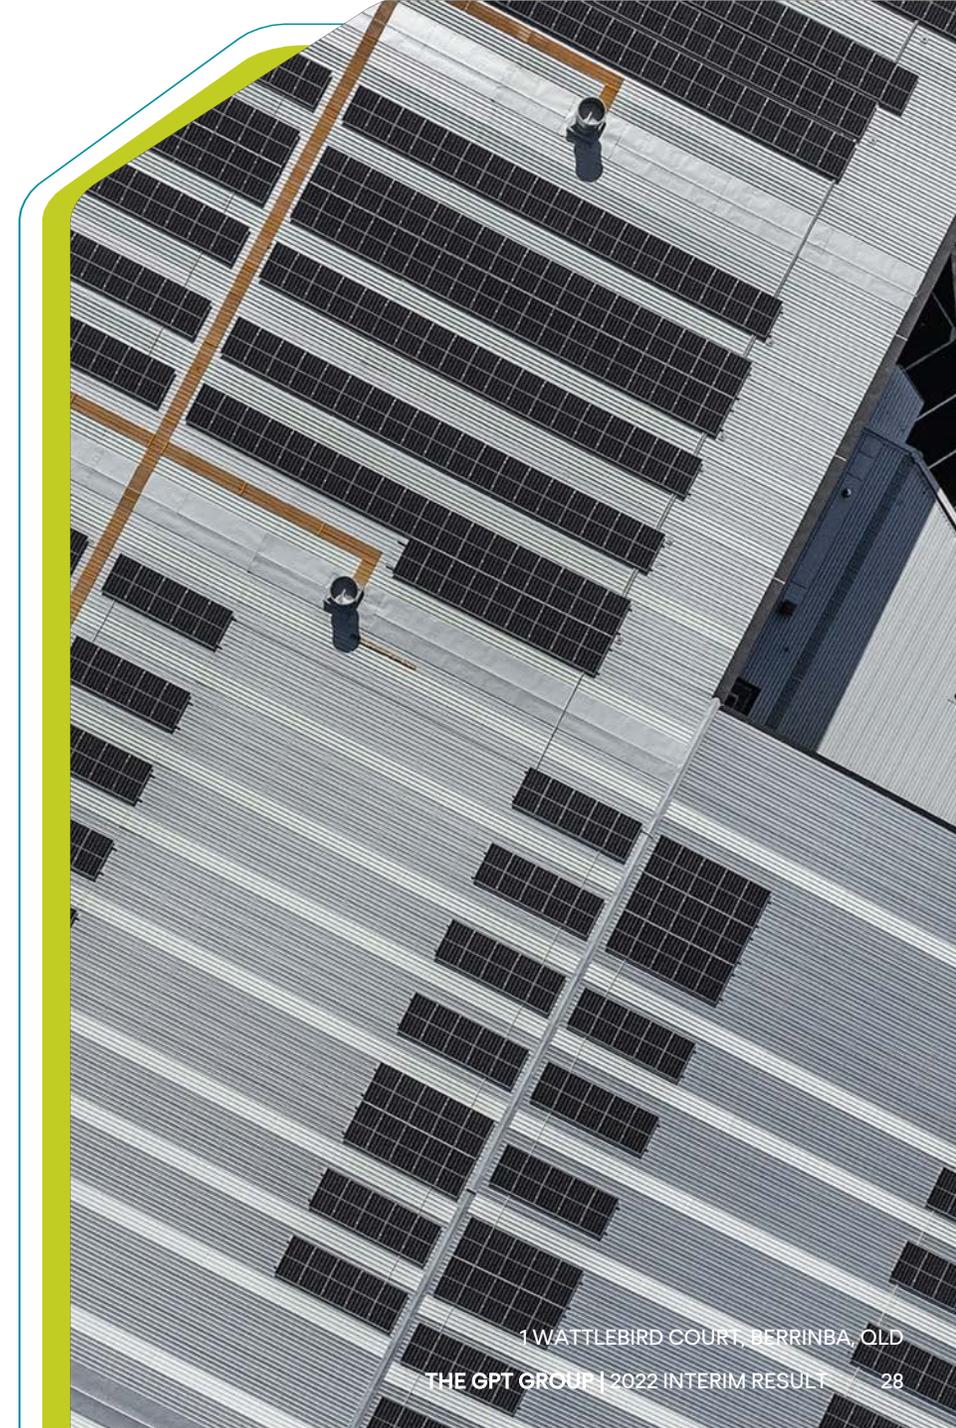

- » Build out development pipeline located in key growth corridors
- » Replenish landbank to provide future growth
- » Grow logistics partnership with QuadReal

Operational excellence supporting customer success

- » Broaden relationships with our high-quality and diverse customer base
- » Build on GPT's leadership position in ESG
- » Capture expected strong market rent growth, with half of portfolio expiring in next five years and through development leasing

Outlook

- » Global capital underweight to logistics, Sydney and Melbourne preferred markets
- » Tenant demand for prime, well-located space to continue
- » Vacancy rates to remain extremely low 2022-2023, with limited availability of zoned and serviced land

Outlook

- » Economic conditions expected to moderate in next 12 months as interest rates rise to curb inflation
- » Higher interest rates present a headwind to earnings and may lead to a softening of valuation metrics
- » Retail portfolio well positioned with high occupancy, fixed rental increases and ongoing tenant demand
- » Improvement in Office leasing volume expected in 2H 2022 as our portfolio benefits from the 'flight to quality'
- » Structural tailwinds, low vacancy and limited supply will drive sustained market rent growth in logistics
- » Development pipeline with an estimated end value of $8.1b provides organic growth opportunities for GPT and managed funds
- » Management of UniSuper mandate to commence September 2022

Funds from Operations (FFO) is reported in the Segment Note disclosures which are included in the financial report of The GPT Group for the 6 months ended 30 June 2022. FFO is a financial measure that represents The GPT Group's underlying and recurring earnings from its operations. This is determined by adjusting statutory net profit after tax under Australian Accounting Standards for certain items which are non-cash, unrealised or capital in nature. FFO has been determined based on guidelines established by the Property Council of Australia. A reconciliation of FFO to Statutory Profit is included in this presentation.

Key statistics for the Retail, Office and Logistics divisions include The GPT Group's weighted interest in the GPT Wholesale Shopping Centre Fund (GWSCF), the GPT Wholesale Office Fund (GWOF) and the GPT QuadReal Logistics Trust (GQLT) respectively.
